			More or less

Time of sale. 4 P.M. to 6 P.M.

Batters and reapers vary in lengths and girths from 8 to 12 ft. and 4" x 2" to 6" x 4" respectively.

If sale is not concluded on the date of sale it will be held on the following day at the same time.

Conditions.

Each bidder shall place a deposit of Rs. 200 with the officer conducting the sale. Bidders to the department will not be allowed to bid at the sales.

In the case of purchasers of timber in small quantities, full value thereof will be tendered on the spot and the payment of deposit in such cases will not be required.

Any person bidding at the sale, may be required by the officer conducting the sale whether he is bidding on his own behalf or as an agent, and in the latter case, to produce written authority duly signed by the principal.

The highest bidder shall ordinarily be the purchaser, but the officer conducting the sale may reject any bid or stop the sale at any stage without assigning any reason to the purchasers.

Immediately after the lot is knocked down to him, the successful bidder shall sign opposite the number and specification of the lot bought by him in a book provided for the purpose. Such signature shall be held as admission on his part of having bought and of having accepted the terms of the sale as herein specified. The sale is subject to the confirmation of the Chief Conservator of Forests.

After conclusion of the sale, each purchaser shall pay 10 per cent of the amount in advance to the officer conducting the sale and obtain in return from him a receipt vouching for the payment of the one-tenth value as well as the initial deposit of Rs. 200. Should any purchaser fail to comply with this rule, the initial deposit of Rs. 200 shall at once be forfeited to Government and the officer conducting the sale shall be at liberty to resell the timber purchased by the defaulter who shall be required to make good any loss, but shall not participate in the proceeds of such resale. The amount due by such defaulter on account of loss from the resale shall be recovered from him as a revenue demand under section 79 of the Mysore Revenue Regulation. In calculating such losses, the initial deposit forfeited to Government shall be taken into account.

In the case of resales for default of payment of value where no bidders are forthcoming, it shall be open to the District Forest Officer to fix such price as may appear to him to be reasonable and to proceed for the recovery from the defaulter of the balance, if any, after deducting the price so fixed from the original sale amount. A registered notice should be served on the defaulter intimating the price fixed by the District Forest Officer for the unsold portion of the timber and the amount still due from him which will be recovered as arrears of Land Revenue. The amount tendered by the unsuccessful bidders shall be returned immediately after the sale is concluded and the balance being lodged in the Savings Bank.

8. If the amount is not fully paid for by the purchaser before the date the initial deposit as well as the other moneys already paid in, shall be forfeited and all of any portion of the timber not fully paid for shall be resold at the purchaser in the manner prescribed for default of payment of one-tenth of the value of the timber supra.

9. No timber lot shall be permitted to be removed by the purchaser unless paid for in full, calculated at the rates at which the timber is knocked down at the time of sale, excluding the 10 per cent deposit paid for the lot at the time of sale. No timber shall be removed from the Depot unless a permit is obtained from the Officer in charge of the depot. The earnest money will not be adjusted towards the purchase of timber, until 90 per cent of the purchase money over and above the security deposit has been paid.

10. Timber purchased should be removed as early as possible and in no case be allowed to remain longer than 90 days after the dates fixed in clause 7 supra. Timber not removed after purchase, will remain in the Depot at the risk of the purchaser until the date of the confirmation of the sale.

11. If the timber is not removed within the time allowed, the same may, after 14 days' notice to the purchaser, be sold in public auction and the proceeds will be paid to the purchaser after defraying all the expenses in connection with the resale.

12. The deposit of Rs. 200 will remain as security for the due fulfilment of all the terms of sale, for the breach of any of which by the purchaser, the Forest Officer shall be entitled to forfeit the deposit in whole or in part and in case of such forfeiture, the sum so forfeited shall be immediately made good by the purchaser. The security deposit or the balance, if any, shall be returned to the purchaser after the full value of timber purchased has been paid for and the timber fully removed.
